policies and procedures

assignments

Working as a temporary employee allows you a certain amount of flexibility, both in the kinds of jobs you wish to accept and how often you want to work. We can't guarantee a set # of hours, as all assignments vary in length. We will try our best to keep you working as often as you are available.

You are not required to accept every position offered to you. Once you do accept an assignment we depend on you to complete the entire job. If you have a scheduling conflict during an assignment please let us know before accepting the position.

Before you accept an assignment we will give you as much information as we obtain from our client: the hours, location, responsibilities, required dress code, and any other pertinent information.

For each assignment the pay will vary. An hourly rate will be quoted to you before you accept the assignment. There is a 4 hour minimum for each assignment, in most circumstances.

Lunch is not a paid break. The time taken for lunch may vary at each client location, so ask your supervisor what amount of time you should take for your lunch break at each assignment. Please remember to document your lunch break on your timesheet.

Overtime is paid when you exceed 40 hours in one week for one specific company. It is important to get overtime approved from the client before you work it. Also, please inform Temp Time, Inc. if you plan on working overtime.

while on an assignment

On the first day of an assignment it's a good idea to get in early. You will meet with our contact in Human Resources who will then take you to the appropriate department.

Once you have settled into your new assignment, call us with the phone number and extension where you can be reached. Please keep personal phone calls to a bare minimum! We suggest you do not make any calls unless it's during your lunch hour. Most computers have access to the Internet, please do not use the Internet for personal use. Please check with your supervisor before you make any personal calls or use the internet.

If you are sick or running late for your assignment, please phone Temp Time, Inc. as soon as you know you will be out, no matter what time it is. If it is not during business hours, you must leave a message. We will call the client to inform them of the situation. Please follow-up with a phone call, even if you have already left a message regarding your absence or tardiness.

On the days you are absent from work please contact us before the end of the work day to let us know if you will be returning to work the following day. Please leave us enough time to find a replacement for you, if you are not returning the next day.

A professional appearance is just as important, and has an equally lasting impression, as your skill level. Proper business attire should be worn on the first day of an assignment, unless noted otherwise by our office. For the remainder of the assignment, base your dress on the standards set by the client.

If training is required for an assignment, you will be paid for this training time after your assignment has commenced. If you do not complete the assignment, obviously, you will not be paid for the training.

payroll

Payday is every Friday, unless it is a holiday. All employees are paid from Friday thru Thursday. Please do not include Friday of the same week in your total weekly hours.

You must call your hours in by Friday at 10:00am to insure that your check will be ready for pick up by noon.

Please note that payroll is added in quarterly increments (15 minutes is .25, 30 minutes is .50 and 45 minutes is .75). Also, make sure your time is rounded to the nearest quarterly increment (for example: if you work 9:00am to 5:10pm, with an hour lunch, your total for the day would be 7.25 hours)

Checks will be mailed only at your request. If your check is lost or stolen and we issue a replacement check, you will be charged a $32.00 stop payment fee.

Please fill out a separate timesheet for each assignment (client) per week. When calling in hours, please specify which hours apply to which client.

In order for us to issue a check, we need to have a signed timesheet. If you're requesting your check to be mailed we will only do so once we receive your signed timesheet.

Please remember to leave the back copy of the timesheet with the client, after they have signed it.
